Lawrence M. Ziemba
Executive Vice President
Refining

Lawrence (Larry) M. Ziemba is executive vice president, Refining, for Phillips 66, a diversified energy manufacturing and logistics company. He has 35 years of experience in the oil and gas industry.

Before joining Phillips 66 in May 2012, Ziemba previously worked for ConocoPhillips as president, Global Refining, a role he took on after serving as president, U.S. Refining, since 2003. He first joined Phillips Petroleum in 2001 after its acquisition of Tosco and was in charge of handling the integration of the refining operations during the merger with Conoco.

Originally from Chicago, he started his career at Unocal's Chicago refinery in 1977. In 1988, he moved to Unocal's Los Angeles corporate headquarters as manager of planning/business development for its downstream business. In 1991, he managed the acquisition of Shell's Carson refinery and subsequently integrated the asset into Los Angeles operations. In 1997, Ziemba joined Tosco as they acquired Unocal's downstream business. In 1999, he was named vice president of Tosco's three San Francisco area refineries. In 2000, he was assigned to handle the acquisition and takeover of the Wood River refinery.

He has held a number of industry and community leadership positions including board positions with American Fuels and Petrochemical Manufacturers Association, WRB Refining LP and the Western States Petroleum Association.

Ziemba earned a bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering from the University of Illinois-Champaign in 1977 and a Master of Business Administration degree from the University of Chicago in 1985.
